MOSELEY'S TUBULAR WROUGHT IRON ARCH BRIDGES AND ROOFS.

THESE Bridges and Roofs have now been fully tested in this vicinity, and it is universally conceded that they cannot be excelled. The Roofs are wholly of Wrought Iron, or mixture of Wood and Iron, Shedding always Iron.

The Bridges are wholly Wrought Iron except the floor, which is wood, like the floors of ordinary Bridges.

We are prepared to make these structures in any quantities, at prices about as follows: Railroad Bridges, 50 feet span, 3,000 lbs., $17 50 per foot lineal.

Common Road or Turnpike, 50 feet span, 2,000 lbs., $7 50 per foot lineal.

Roofs, all iron, 50 feet width of building, $25 per 100 square feet, part wood and part iron, from $15 to $20 per square.

Increase of span of bridges or width of buildings makes an increase of price, but the increase in price is no more than the increase of wooden structures.

We can furnish iron of every size to work into Bridges and Roofs, and Railroads or other companies buying the right to use them and the iron of us can make their own structures one third less than the above prices.

Our structures weigh only from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 that of wood; differences in freight in a long distance buys our work. In a few days we will have at our Factory, 497 West Third street, in this city, four different specimens of our Roofs, where the public can inspect them to their satisfaction. We beg them to give us a call, as all our work is warranted, and we ask no pay on ordinary jobs until the work is done and approved, payments being secured on contracting. Office No. 65 West Third street, Cincinnati, O.

THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1858.

There is peace and quiet now in Kansas Territory. It is a promise of good to the best interests of the Territory.—Lou. Courier.

As long as the "law and order" party were dominant in Kansas we heard of nothing but murder, arson, robbery, and every description of crime; but now that the "friends of law and order" have been routed, horse foot, and dragons, and many of them ignominiously driven from the Territory by the curses, deep and loud, and heart felt execrations of the great majority of the people, and the "enemies of law and order" are triumphant, we are told that peace and quiet is in Kansas, and that it is a promise of good to the best interests of the Territory. Perhaps if this result had been accomplished years ago, there would always have been peace and quiet in Kansas. But it is not very conducive to law and order that the Federal bayonets should be used to assist 1,500 miserable squatters and the Cincinnati Directory in keeping in submission 10,000 American freemen. Our Revolutionary fathers resisted such "law and order men."

While the Democratic papers of Kentucky are denouncing Hon. Thos. Corwin as a vile abolitionist and endeavoring to impute freecell proclivities to those Southern Americans who have commended his position as eminently conservative, the Democrats of Ohio are ridiculing the Republicans of Corwin's District because they have nominated a man who repudiates the ultra Republican doctrine. The Columbus Statesman, the central Administration organ, says that Corwin is as good a Democrat on the slavery question as Mr. Buchanan himself. If Corwin is elected, as he most assuredly will be, the Democrats will not improbably claim it as a triumph of Democratic principles. So we go.

The South Carolina papers are debating the propriety of sending back to Africa the negroes captured by the Dolphin from the slave, Echo. Some propose to reduce them to slavery in this country, and one South Carolinian, keen for a speculation in this kind of stock, has offered to give $50,000 for the cargo. Would it not be a pretty spectacle in this age of progressive civilization for the United States Government to turn negro trader, and endeavor to make profit out of the capture of these miserable beings. If the United States Government shall sell them, as she certainly will not do, why not have permitted the crew of the Echo to have proceeded unmolested in their unholy traffic? Does the Government intend to make a monopoly of the trade and exclude the private citizen from competition in it? But fortunately it has already been decided to return them to Africa, and debate upon the question is superfluous. We are glad that the attempt of certain South Carolina fire eaters to render our country a party to any such infamous transaction as deriving profit from the sale of these cargoes has failed.

Fulkerson's Lecture.—Do not forget that the "Eccentric" will lecture to night at the Capital Hotel. The entertainment will be amusing.

Kentucky Farmer.—We have received the August number of this interesting Agricultural Journal, and have been pleased to find that the ability exhibited in the first issue has not been withdrawn from the paper. On the contrary there has been a decided improvement, and in each succeeding number we expect to find a corresponding change for the better. Every farmer in the State should send his dollar for this paper.

National Politics.—The Boston "Courier," a true Conservative journal, Whig in its politics, and strongly opposed to the "Republicans," and Abolitionists of the North, refers to the course taken towards it by certain Democratic papers in Massachusetts, and says that they "cannot bear that a Whig, who ever manfully resists the common danger, Republicanism, should be counted a patriot at all, unless he fights strictly under the Democratic banner or in the Democratic ranks. The thing is nothing unless he bears the name also. No matter if he saves the ship, if found afterwards that the pilot was not up to the true Democratic standard, it all goes for nothing."

C. B. Getz's Clothing Store.—From an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Getz is receiving his fall and winter stock of clothing, furnishing goods, &c. We think we can safely recommend him to our friends as a clever reliable man of business, and would there fore say to all who need articles in his line to call on Charles Getz and examine his stock before you purchase elsewhere, as he will sell you good articles on fair terms.

Judge Breese.—The Belleville (Ill.) Democrat is authorized to say, that Judge Breese is not, and will not be, a candidate for the United States Senate, in opposition to Judge Douglas, and that has been said in reference to his stump ing the State against the Democratic party, is without any foundation whatever.

Mr. Case, the Republican candidate for Congress against Mr. Cox, in the Columbus District, of Ohio, wrote a letter in June, 1856, in which he accepted the invitation of the Democracy of Knox county to address their Buchanan ratification meeting. He said no better Presidential nomination could have been made; "he adopted them, and with them the platform."

The Post office Department has ordered an additional weekly trip of the mail boats between Vicksburg and Napoleon. This secures a daily mail from Cairo to New Orleans, running on alternate days with service already under contract.

Forty-Eight Slaves Emancipated.—A dumb bear of negroes, late the property of Mrs. Hester Blanchard, of Fayette county, Ky., and emancipated by her will, were in the Cincinnati Probate Court on Friday, upon the occasion of the instrument by which they were manumitted being admitted to record. They were in all forty-eight in number.

Col. Whitely, lately connected with the Louisville Journal, is about to assume the editorship of the Baltimore Clipper.

Lieut. John Maffit, commander of the U. S. brig Dolphin, which took the slave Echo, is the son of the well known Methodist clergyman of that name.

Mr. Morphy.—The London critic says that when Mr. Stanton was first challenged to play Mr. Morphy, the young American chess player, the sum named was £1000, because it was expected that Mr. Stanton would meet his antagonist in America, and it was thought a smaller sum ought not to be offered to a veteran chess player. When, however, Mr. Morphy came to England, the sum was reduced to $500 by mutual consent. We are given to understand that Mr. Morphy's money is posted, but Mr. Stanton's is not; and there is a very confident feeling among chess players that, since Mr. Morphy's success in opposition to Herr Lowenthal, Mr. Stanton's anxiety for the match will not be augmented.

Mr. Corry, an anti-Leocompton Democrat, has announced himself an independent candidate for Congress in the Second district of Ohio, which composes Hamilton county and a part of Cincinnati.

At the trial of fire engines in Boston, last week, for which three Massachusetts machines and one from Philadelphia were entered, the latter carried off the prize.

The Dauphin.—Rev. Eleazer Williams died at Buxley, Franklin county, New York, on the 28th inst., after a protracted illness. His disease was complex, but the chief was dropsy. He was indelicate circumstances.

Considerable excitement has been aroused in the village of Newark, N. Y., by the conduct of two men named Martin and Rew, who, being convicted of Judaism, by a traveling fanatic named Bishop, circumcised their sons, aged respectively eight and twelve years, in a very barbarous manner. The indignant citizens had the parents put under bonds for good behavior.

The postmaster at Topeka, Kansas, had the presumption to vote against Leocompton on the 2d ult., and as a consequence, he has been promptly removed. Great is "popular sovereignty."

An Interesting Relic.—Persons curious in relics may see at the store of Allen Culbert, Eighth Street, the Balance wheel of John Fitch's Model Engine for the first Philadelphia steamboat, 1786, twenty-one years before Fulton's New York boat, in 1807.—Phil. Bulletin.

A Slave Stampede.—The Annapolis (Maryland) Republican says: Ten valuable slaves belonging to Col. G. W. Hughes, of West River, in this county, left his farm in a body on Tuesday morning last. At Queen Ann's about ten miles from Col. Hughes', two of them who went there to get something to eat, were captured by Mr. Thomas E. Alvey and Mr. Richard H. Harwood. The rest of the negroes who were a short distance off, waiting their return, suspecting from their long absence that they had been arrested, started in pursuit and coming upon them, at once with a bold rush, released their two comrades. A desperate fight occurred and two of the negro men were, we learn, dangerously wounded, and left upon the field of battle. This seemed to frighten and deter the negroes, because they as speedily as possible returned home to their master. The two wounded were sent for and properly cared for.

Bourbon County Fair.—Bourbon is not less noted for its beautiful women, its refined society, its wealth, and its productive soil, than for its splendid stock. The Bourbon Fair commenced yesterday, and continues for four days. The order of the exhibition is as follows:

First Day—Cattle, Sheep and Hogs.
Second Day—Horses for harness and Mules.
Third Day—Goldings, Matched Horses, &c., and Jacks and Jennets.
Fourth Day—Horses for saddle, and Draft Horses.

Another Homicide.—We learn from the Richmond Democrat that a man by the name of Wm. Rice shot a Mr. Robert Wade, on Monday last, near the Mouth of Gates creek, killing him instantly. None of the particulars are given.

The President, it is stated, has offered the Spanish Mission to Mr. J. P. Benjamin, United States Senator for Louisiana. Mr. Benjamin is now in the South, and it is not known if he will accept it.

Hon. John M. Daniel, U. S. Minister at Turin, has applied for a recall, and is about to resume his connection with the Virginia press.

Murders in Washington County.—Mysterious Affair.—A letter from Springfield, Ky., to a friend in this city, gives some particulars of two murders in Washington county, near Springfield. Some days since, two men, Henderson and Yocum, made an attack upon a man named Thos. Paris, and in the affray killed Paris' son, the old man was wounded, and are now in jail in Springfield. On Friday the elder Paris, was found in the public road, murdered, not far from his own house. He was shot, and as yet the murderers are undetected. The affair is enveloped in mystery, but it is probable he was assassinated by those with whom he was at personal enmity. These are all the particulars detailed in the letter.

Hon. Charles E. Stuart, whose term as United States Senator from Michigan expires with the present Congress, has received the Democratic nomination for Governor, despite positive orders from Washington forbidding such a nomination as an implied rebuke to the administration. Senator Stuart stood with Douglas all through the Leocompton struggle, and his course is approved by the mass of his party at home.—Lou. Courier.

The Chicago Herald, one of Mr. Buchanan's organs says: We are bound, under any circumstances, to make this fight to the end. Stephen A. Douglass cannot be elected to the Senate. Salt peter cannot save him. The people of Washington may rely confidently on this. Mr. Douglass will not be allowed to triumph over Mr. Buchanan.

Bank of America.—The Nashville Gazette of Sunday says: The notes of this bank were thrown out by all our bankers yesterday. The issues are looked upon as worthless by most of our business men, although a number are of the opinion that the owners will be able to redeem every dollar of the circulation.

High Price for Mules.—Mr. M. M. Godman, of this county, sold last week six head of two year old mules to Dr. Scott, of Georgia, at $225 00 per head. They were selected out of a large lot and are indeed extra. They will be exhibited at the Clarke fair to-day.—Paris Flag.

From the Detroit Advertiser, Sept. 3d.

The Administration Signally Rebuked by the Democracy of Michigan.
The great battle for supremacy in Michigan came off in this city yesterday, between the National Administration arms of office holders on the one side, and the Douglas Democracy on the other. The result has been a most disgraceful and ignominious defeat of the Administration, and a terrible rebuke to Buchanan and Cass. Henceforth they must be ranked amongst the things that were. The whole country, with the exception of a few insignificant Post-masters, was in the convention, and was shamefully beaten on an issue it had sent orders from Washington to be raised. That issue was the question of Chas. E. Stuart's nomination, a man more cordially hated by the Administration than the most inveterate Republican in the Union.

It is only just to the office holders to state that they made a far more gallant and formidable fight than we supposed them capable. The day before the Convention, they had become quite disheartened, and about resolved to abandon the contest in despair. But our hint to them of the personal consequences of so cowardly a surrender, had the effect to galvanize them into life.—The U. S. Marshall, Postmaster, and Collector, were brought at once to a sense of their duty and their danger; and by the most stuporous labors, and the promise of a place to every recruit, they were enabled to muster a respectable force, and to make a formidable show of strength.

But it all would not do. They had too great odds to contend against. Besides they had bad generals and too many of them, while the Stuart troops were commanded by one of the shrewdest, boldest, most stirring, and most sleepless old campaigners in the State. The Postmaster and Collector were no match for such a tactician as John H. Harmon. He assaulted them in the front and in the rear, turned their right and their left wings all at the same time, and threw them into inextricable confusion at the very commencement of the engagement. The victory was complete and overwhelming and proves how inferior their generalship was to that of the office holders. Like a good general, he determined to improve the time. In anticipation of it he had the guns all ready to give the discomfited enemy a broadside as they were retreating from the field of their disgrace. No sooner had the non-invasion been announced, than the loud music cannon began to proclaim in tones of thunder, the great victory. Though this was adding insult to injury, it was but natural that Mr. Harmon and his friends should thus exult over their great triumph, and the mortifying and annihilating defeat of the Administration and the Free Press.

Of course the office holders, what little there is left of them, will support Mr. Stuart, because it will not be their policy to show how contemptible they are in numbers by opposing him. It would do them no good if they did, and so they will swallow the pill, bitter as it is. This is the part of wisdom as well as duty.

In another article, the Advertiser remarks: The cruelest opponent of Gen. Cass must feel some degree of consideration for the poor old man, in view of the humiliation which the nomination of Stuart inflicts upon him. He has undoubtedly become somewhat hardened to the buffets of his enemies, but this fire in the rear from the States which he so long carried in his breeches pocket, is a culmination to his disgrace which even Stuart's inevitable defeat can not obliterate. And the keenest point of the sting is that it was the very object, together with the indignity it offends to Buchanan, which was sought to be accomplished in Stuart's nomination.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.
Col. Rector has been instructed by the Secretary of the Interior to proceed to Florida, and, as soon as the season will permit, to take measures for the removal of the Seminoles who are now in the everglades. The Secretary is desirous that this should be done under the superintendence of Col. Rector alone, without the interference of the authorities or citizens of Florida. White flags will be distributed through the swamps for the purpose of calling them to a council. No military force will be employed. The Indians will be removed to Arkansas, whither Billy Bowlegs and his band were transferred, should the negotiations be successful in the case of the disputed title to the Rancho de los Americanos in California. The Secretary of the Interior has rejected the survey of the Surveyor General of that State, and ordered a new one to be made.

General superintendent Talmadge was suspended to-day by the police commissioners for refusing to obey the order of Gen. Nye to send policemen to the quarantine grounds, on the night of the 2d. Five more arrests were made to-day, but nothing important took place at Staten Island.

ALL ANIMALS CAN TALK.—At an annual meeting of the Association for the Advancement of Science, held at Boston it was shown that, after all, there are no dumb beasts? Dr. Gibson read a very interesting paper on the language of animals. He said that every variety of animated being possesses some means of intelligible communication. Each creature, by sounds or signs of correspondence, has a language understood by its own kind, and sometimes learned by others. Emotions of caution, affection or fear—joy, gratitude and grief—are disclosed by simple tones of voice, or by impressive gestures to signalize feelings strictly comprehended and often answered. Insects and birds, fish and beasts, thus express themselves in distinct languages, signed, spoken and sung, seen heard and felt. He illustrated his theory by stating familiar facts relative to domestic animals.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Rheumatism Cured!

Not less than about twenty thousand cases, of this painful and paralyzing disease, have already been cured by the use of Dr. Mortimore's celebrated remedy. These comprise cases of every seeming form of the disease, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years standing, and this after the patients had long been given up as incurable by eminent physicians. Some had taken voyages at sea, spent years of residence in the most salubrious climates, visited the various "Water Cure" establishments, and celebrated Springs, both in this country and Europe, yet had still remained crippled, until they used this remedy, and by its use have been restored to health.

This is a vegetable—internal remedy, prepared and recommended for this one disease alone. It is a cure, and is perfectly safe to be used in any state of health, even by the most delicate female or child.

Evidence of the highest possible character from physicians, clergymen and others, is published in behalf of this remedy, such as to give it character with every intelligent or reflecting mind. This evidence will be furnished to any address desired. The medicine is sold at $5 per bottle, five bottles for $20, or $40 per dozen, and will be sent by Express, or as directed, to any part of the Union. Apply to or address
